

Spaces of trajectories as primitives

Yuliy Baryshnikov
UIUC

Abstract

I will give a few examples how passing to the space of trajectories simplifies and unifies handling of open control system. Among topics covered are topology of spaces of obstacles avoiding trajectories; topological perplexity for time-dependent systems; recovery of the topology of the underlying phase space from the observations for hybrid and chaotic systems and some further plots.